A return to Stay at Home restrictions for metropolitan Melbourne and Mitchell Shire from 11:59pm on Wednesday 8 July 2020

Announcement made: 3.25pm, 7 July 2020

In line with advice from the Victorian Chief Health Officer, the Victorian Government has announced that metropolitan Melbourne and Mitchell Shire will return to Stage 3 Stay at Home restrictions from 11.59pm on Wednesday 8 July 2020.

This decision was made in response to a significant increase in community transmission of coronavirus (COVID-19) in these areas.

This includes:

1. Banyule
2. Hume
3. Moreland
4. Bayside
5. Kingston
6. Mornington Peninsula
7. Boroondara
8. Knox

9. Nillumbik
10. Brimbank
11. Manningham
12. Port Phillip
13. Cardinia
14. Maribyrnong
15. Stonnington
16. Casey
17. Maroondah
18. Whitehorse
19. Darebin
20. Melbourne
21. Whittlesea
22. Frankston
23. Melton
24. Wyndham
25. Glen Eira
26. Monash
27. Yarra
28. Greater Dandenong
29. Moonee Valley
30. Yarra Ranges
31. Hobsons Bay
32. Mitchell Shire

If you live in one of these areas, there will once again only be 4 reasons to leave home:

- Shopping for food and supplies
- Medical care and caregiving
- Exercise and recreation
- Study and work – if you can't do it from home

Can I stay at a holiday home or second property?

- No. You must reside at your principal place of residence. We must all limit our movement in order to limit the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19).

I live in Melbourne but I am currently on holidays - am I required to return home?

- From 11:59pm on 8 July, if you normally live in Melbourne metropolitan area or the Shire of Mitchell but are on holidays elsewhere, you may continue that holiday.
- From the start of the Directions (11.59 pm on 8 July), people living in Melbourne metropolitan area or the Shire of Mitchell are required to Stay at Home except for the four reasons (shopping for necessary goods or services, care or compassionate reasons, exercise, and work and study) and will not be permitted to leave home for the purposes of a holiday.

Leongatha Golf Club understand that this measure may be inconvenient for some, but it has been introduced for your safety. In the meantime, please continue to comply with the social distancing guidelines and good hygiene practice measures that have allowed us to continue to operate without incident during this crisis period. It is with your continued cooperation and understanding that we will continue to be able to provide a safe facility for you to play golf.

Thank you for your understanding,

Leongatha Golf Club
